CIVIL PROCEEDINGS

Investigation of death
of
Guillaume Dubourg, alias Beaucondray

INQUEST

According to Marlot's testimony, Dubourg, having gone to Dauphine Isle from Mobile in order to get some negroes of the Company, became ill of the dysentery, and died of it at the Isle's Hospital. This happened at the end of November or the first part of December, year 1719; that an inventory of his effects was made by Sr. Jacotab and deposited with Raguet, that deponent was ordered by Mr. de Ville Deau, Director to turn over to Mr. Olivier a quart of flour belonging to said Beaucondray.

(Signed) J. B. Marlot
Brusle

Nicolas Miragouen, aged 48, a resident of Miragouen deposes and says that Beaucondray came to this Province with Olivier to engage in business; that he left Mobile for Dauphine Isle to get some negroes and while there became ill of the dysentery. He stayed a while at the home of Mr. Robert and was transferred to the hospital where he died.

DESTROYED MARRIAGE CONTRACT

Petition: Peltier de Franchomme

Peltier de Franchomme, officer, stationed in Illinois, petitions the council alleging his marriage contract, along with other notarial documents, has been destroyed by rats; owing to his inexperience he had neglected to get a duplicate copy of said contract at the time it was drawn by notary Bussereau de Bellegarde, and now asks that a duplicate be made by Rossard, notary royal, in presence of Bellegarde and other witnesses who were present when the original was drawn up.

Bonhomme
vs.
De Gauvry
(2300 livres)

Petition

Bonhomme, Canadian, alleges that by act under private signature, he sold to Mr. Hubert, before his departure for France, a lot and five negroes. The purchase price of negroes was 6000 livres; that Bonhomme turned the negroes over to Mr. de Gauvry for use on his plantation, where they remained for two years and four months; that on the death of Mr. Hubert no one assumed the obligations for the balance due ^{on} negroes.

He therefore prays that Bonhomme be condemned to pay 2300 livres for the use of the negroes during the period of 2 years and 4 months, or whatever the Court deems proper, less a credit of 1080, which Hubert paid on account for the negroes.

COURT ORDER IN LIBEL SUIT.

By petition of Rev. Father Raphael, Capuchin priest, Vicar General of the most Reverend Bishop of Quebec, the Superior Council of Louisiana orders the Sieur Jastram, Captain of "La Gironde" to retain on board a prisoner, the Sieur Lusurier, Chaplain of said vessel, there being no ecclesiastical prison at New Orleans; Lusurier refuses to show credentials but asserts that he is not a capuchin, and so, not amenable to a Capuchin Superior. Council orders Captain Jastram to forbid Lusurier to perform any ecclesiastical functions on board.

The Rev. Father Raphael representing the Most Reverend Bishop of Quebec, orders the interdiction of said Lusurier, in the Council Chamber, March 31st, 1725, by extraordinary session. Sheriff Vincent serves notice on Captain Jastram.
